

media kit 2023

CAROLINE KID

singer, songwriter

Six years into a "ten year town," Iowa-native, Caroline Kid, released her self-penned, self-titled debut EP, and has quickly earned her title as one of "Nashville's Rising Stars" (Authority Magazine). With early recognition from country mainstays MusicRow, ACM, TheBoot, and a CMT-supported music video, Kid is ready to take what she calls "roadtrip country" from coast to coast.

@carolineonthego

facebook.com/carolinekid

carolinekid.com

Joliet, IL

Nashville, TN

Des Moines, IA

Appleton, WI

Thomasville, AL

2022: a triumphant debut

EP

Kid releases "Wyoming," "Static," and "Weather", in weeks leading up to 6-song, solo-written EP, and is recognized by country mainstays CMT and ACM.

Video

Nov 23rd, Kid released music video in exclusive premiere with TheBoot.com, which was followed up with support from CMT.

Tour

To celebrate the EP release, Kid crossed out of the Nashville city limits for 5 midwestern tour dates including her hometown of Des Moines, Iowa.

Additional Highlights

- Invited to play inaugural HWY 43 Songwriter's Festival
- Winner of Qualifying Round of Tennessee Songwriter's Week 2022
- Showcase with Breaking Sound Nashville
- Guest on Remember Country Music Podcast
- On-air performance & interview at KBOE Oskaloosa

"Do I Miss the Rain" Music Video

Music Video Feature

Official Playlist

Exclusive Video Premiere

Release Week Feature

Release Week Feature

✦ coming soon ✦

new music

Kid is back in the studio working on a follow-up collection of 2023 releases, to include award-winning song "Whiskey Lies", expected in Spring 2023.

in-depth interview

Guest appearance and acoustic collaboration with on Jeff McMahon's podcast, "McMahon On Keys". Jeff was a member of the Dancehall Doctors, and toured with Tim McGraw for 18 years.